REPORT

TITLE: A Lecture on Corona Virus Infection: Should we worry or not?

DATE: 24th February 2020

VENUE: 4th Floor Auditorium, Dr G. D. Pol Foundation YMT Dental College and Hospital,
Kharghar, Navi Mumbai

TIME: 11:30 AM

As a part of International Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeon's Day, a lecture was arranged on the awareness about the Coronavirus Infection. The lecture was given by Dr. Vishal Gupta, MD, DNB (Respiration Medicine), MNAMS, Dip. Allergy & Asthma (CMC, Vellore) and Dr. Shashikala R., MSc Microbiology.

The 2019–2020 coronavirus outbreak is an ongoing public health emergency of international concern, first identified by health authorities in Wuhan, Hubei, China. Medical professionals are striving very hard so that the pain and suffering what the patients are experiencing can lessen down. Hence it was of utmost importance to know, as much as possible, about this, so that we too can pass on correct information regarding it. The lecture held was very informative, covering all important aspects of it which included its epidemiology, cause, signs and symptoms, diagnosis, prevention and management. Frequently washing hands with soap and water; not touching the eyes, nose, or mouth with unwashed hands; and practising good respiratory hygiene is the best way of prevention.

The lecture was attended by the staff of the college and the students in large numbers. It raised our awareness regarding the infection, cleared all our misconceptions and also helped us to impart knowledge for the same amongst our near and dear ones.

The lecture held was very informative, covered all important aspects of it which included it's cause, signs and symptoms, diagnosis, prevention and management.

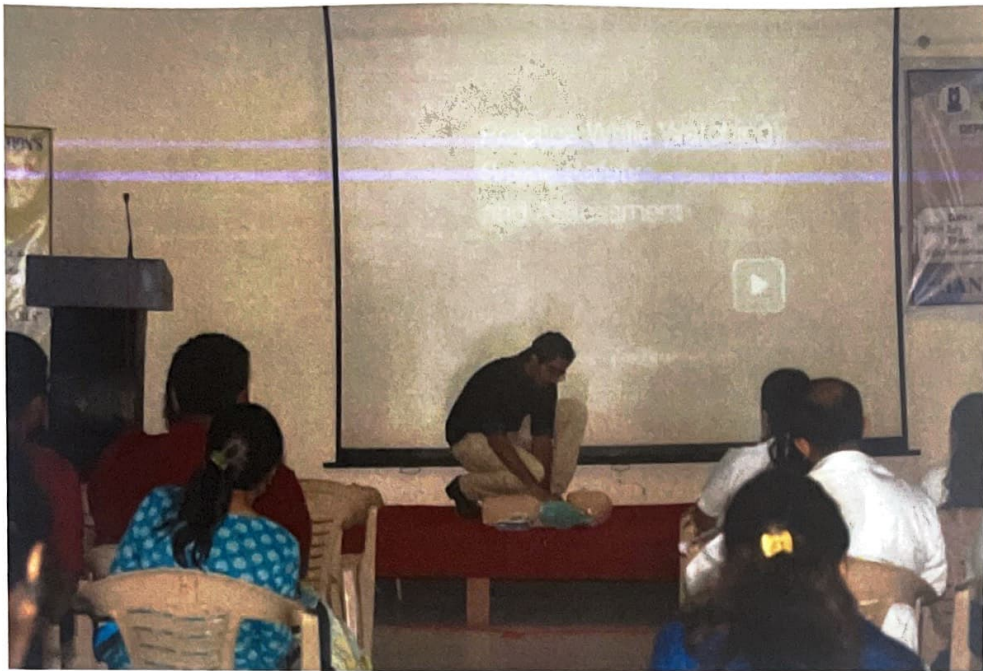

The lecture was followed by hands on workshop on CPR which was attended by the staff of the college and the students in large numbers. It raised our awareness on medical emergency, cleared all our misconceptions and also helped us to gain knowledge for the same amongst our near and dear ones.
